Stronger growth potential

Five- and 10-year surrender term options help meet varying growth objectives. With longer investment horizons, Aviator's multi-year crediting strategy options often come with higher participation rates compared with single-year strategies – without the added cost of a fee. No matter the strategy term length you choose, Aviator is built for lasting performance.

Exclusive index strength

Three custom index options offer advanced portfolio design backed by the strength of trusted global financial leaders. Further fueled by Bank of America's patented Fast Convergence (FC) Technology, Aviator indices help capture opportunities and minimize downturn impacts with greater precision and consistency.

Lock in performance

See index performance you like? Aviator's Index Lock feature gives you the option to lock in for the remainder of the term (once per crediting term, per strategy).

Fuel your performance for the long term.

Enjoy the confidence that comes from knowing your annuity is built to adapt automatically—keeping your strategy balanced and on track. In addition to manual Individual Strategy Allocation, Aviator offers two unique hands-free options that each deliver a smart, simple way to let your money work for you.

Strategy Preset® helps keep your strategy and goals aligned when you choose a single preset path, offering expanded diversification through automatic rebalancing and strategy term laddering. What is a fixed indexed annuity (FIA)?

A fixed indexed annuity (FIA) is a deferred annuity that offers growth potential based on market performance, with a level of protection against market downturns. When markets perform well, you can earn interest, and when they decline, your principal is not directly exposed to market losses. FIAs also provide tax-deferred growth—meaning you don't pay taxes on earnings until you withdraw them—and can offer options at maturity to create a guaranteed stream of income, including income you can't outlive.

Is my money guaranteed to grow?

Aviator's Minimum Guaranteed Contract Value ensures you will receive a minimum interest crediting rate, which is defined in your contract, on a percentage of your premium, adjusted for withdrawals while the contract is in effect.

Can I access my money if I need it?

Yes, Aviator provides annual penalty-free withdrawal privileges. Free Withdrawal provisions include an annual free withdrawal up to 10% of the Accumulated Value as of the previous Contract Anniversary, beginning in the first Contract Year. Each year, you may withdraw up to the maximum free amount of your annuity's Accumulated Value without a Withdrawal Charge or Market Value Adjustment (MVA). A portion of your contract's index performance-to-date on the Free Withdrawal may be credited back to the Accumulated Value in the form of Free Withdrawal Gains.

Additionally, if you need to surrender your contract in full, you will receive the greater of the contract's Accumulated Value plus Free Withdrawal Gains, adjusted for any applicable Withdrawal Charges and/or Market Value Adjustment, and the Minimum Guaranteed Contract Value.

What tax considerations should I be aware of?

Aviator's Free Withdrawal provision can be used to satisfy annual Required Minimum Distributions (RMDs). RMDs are IRS mandatory withdrawals required with qualified contracts (such as an IRA).² RMD withdrawals from your annuity contract are considered part of your free withdrawal, free of Withdrawal Charges and MVA for the Contract Year.

What happens if my retirement plan changes because my health changes?

Aviator provides flexibility when you may need it most. After the first Contract Year, you can withdraw up to 100% of your annuity's Daily Value without a Withdrawal Charge or Market Value Adjustment if you qualify for Aviator's Confinement or Terminal Illness Waivers.* The product's Confinement Waiver applies if you're confined to a Qualified Care Facility for at least 60 consecutive days and meet eligibility requirements, with confinement beginning after your contract starts. Aviator's Terminal Illness Waiver applies if you are diagnosed with a terminal illness expected to result in death within one year, and the diagnosis occurs after the Contract Date.

These benefits are designed to help you access your money without penalty during difficult times.

What estate planning considerations should I be aware of?

Aviator's Death Benefit guarantees that your primary beneficiary will receive the option to continue the contract (spousal only) or receive the remaining contract value in a lump sum. If you pass away before the end of your contract term, the lump sum option guarantees your beneficiaries will receive the greater of the contract's Daily Value and the Minimum Guaranteed Contract Value.

Diversification does not ensure positive returns or protect against negative returns.

Under current tax law, the Internal Revenue Code already provides tax deferral to qualified money, so there is no additional tax benefit obtained by funding a qualified contract, such as an IRA, with an annuity; consider the other benefits provided by an annuity, such as lifetime income and a Death Benefit.

Athene does not provide tax, financial or legal advice. Taxpayers should consult their own independent qualified professionals as to their personal circumstances.

Withdrawals and surrender of taxable amounts are subject to ordinary federal and state income tax, and except under certain circumstances, will be subject to an IRS penalty if taken prior to age 59½. Withdrawals in excess of the free amount are subject to a Withdrawal Charge and MVA which may result in the loss of principal.

The IRS requires individuals owning IRAs to take a required minimum distribution (RMD) each year once you reach a certain age, which varies by birthdate. The annual deadline for taking an RMD is December 31. You may delay your first RMD until April 1 of the year after you attain the required beginning age. If you delay your first RMD, you'll have to take your first and second RMD in the same tax year. If you fail to take your RMD, you may be subject to an excise tax. Please consult with your tax professional for guidelines specific to your situation. Visit IRS.gov for details.

Guarantees provided by annuities are subject to the financial strength and claims paying ability of the issuing insurance company.
